Wednesday's
Child

Alexis (2000) just may be a name that someday is associated with the red carpet of award shows ... not as an actor but as a fashion designer! Alexis is interested in both fashion design and make-up and aspires to someday hear her name in the reply when celebrities are asked "who are you wearing this evening?" So needless to say Alexis made an ideal Wednesday's Child guest at Doris Bergman's 7th Annual Style Lounge & Party in Celebration of the Emmy Season at Fig & Olive in West Hollywood, CA.

For any fashionista in attendance, a visit to the Sue Wong line of fashion and fragrances was a must, so Alexis made her way to and through all they had on display. Alexis is a bright young lady who may initially come off as a little shy but her friendly and engaging side eventually shines through. Alexis likes spending time with her friends – in person and/or on the phone – and also enjoys dancing. And to help a good dance rhythm, Alexis and crew got to try out headphones by dioo Audio.

An easy and good life is not handed to any of us in a bag, but Alexis has certainly proven that she is a resilient youth with a positive outlook. Alexis is working on refining her coping skills for those times when her natural "flight" instincts want to kick in. Alexis is also working hard in school to help her succeed in achieving life goals.

While Alexis has the potential to become a name behind some of the fashion of future red carpet events, what she needs more at the moment is to have a permanent family behind her giving her the stability and support that it takes to put one's best foot forward and stand tall, focused and proud. To catch a glimpse of all that is Alexis, tune in to this week's Wednesday's Child and then give us a call at 1-866-921-ADOPT (2367) to learn more about adopting.
